QUARANTINED PEOPLE MAKE SERIOUS CHARGES

People From Makura Say Federal Station Insanitary And Neglect Shown By Authorities

"We do hereby make complaint of insanitary conditions at the quarantine station and neglect on the part of both the steamship company and the United States public health and marine hospital officials." This statement signed by passengers on the Makura who were held in quarantine here last week.

Specific complaints of insanitary conditions at the federal quarantine station and of neglect on the part of both the steamship company and the United States public health and marine hospital officials were made by passengers on the Makura who were held in quarantine here last week.

The complainants were from various parts of the Hawaiian Islands, which arrived here last Monday with a cargo of passengers and baggage. A number of passengers were held in quarantine and complained that they were treated in a most insanitary manner.

On Friday afternoon the complainants were held in quarantine at the federal station. The complainants were held in quarantine at the federal station.

WOULD LICENSE POLITICS AND CHARGE PARTIES $5,000 YEAR

Keawehaku Given Credit for Something New in Political Strategy

Gabriel Keawehaku, Democrat, and one of McGandless' supporters, is advocating something in politics. He believes that political parties in this Territory should be licensed and advocates the passage of a bill in the next legislature to that effect.

TAFT WRITES FREAR HE IS PLEASED TO REAPPOINT HIM

Declaring that he is "glad to be able to reach the conclusion he has, as a result of Secretary of the Interior Fisher's investigation," President Taft has written a personal letter to Governor Frear, which arrived in Honolulu by mail this morning. The President's comment on this feature was brief, but highly satisfactory to the Governor, and it is taken to indicate that Taft will not forget his promise, made a few weeks ago, to reappoint Frear.
